COMMUNIQUE

The board of directors of SACREIL (the “Board”) would like to apprise its shareholders and the public in general that the unaudited financial statements of the Company for the three months and six months ended 30 June 2019 are currently being prepared and are not likely to be completed by 14 August 2019.

As such, the Company will not be in a position to publish its abridged unaudited financial statements for the three months and six months ended 30 June 2019 within the 45 days deadline from the end of the quarter ended 30 June 2019. This deferral has arisen due to delay in finalising the Company's underlying properties' valuation reports.

Following an application made to the Stock Exchange of Mauritius Ltd (“SEM”), the Company has been granted approval to extend the deadline for publishing its abridged unaudited financial statements for the three months and six months ended 30 June 2019 until Friday, 23 August 2019.

By order of the Board
